History revisits itself

Award winning artist Mzuri Moyo Aimbaye performs The Fannie Lou Hamer One Woman Play endorsed by Roland Martin at NAACP Dallas Justice for all Brunch

Dallas, TX Lofty Spaces July 31, 2022– 1pm 816 Montgomery St

Join NAACP Dallas at our annual Justice for all Brunch. This year we will be focused on voting rights as we award future leaders with a scholarships. The afternoon will be topped off with an award-winning performance by Mzuri Moyo Aimbaye, whom will be performing infamous The Fannie Lou Hamer One Woman Play.

Fannie Lou Hamer's voting journey and powerful testimony shed light on the plight of voting complications within Mississippi for African Americans, a common theme for many who exercised their right to vote.

We invite the entire Dallas community to come enjoy a delicious brunch and enjoy a nourishing message on voting. The cost is $60 per person and tickets can be purchased on eventbrite by searching Fannie Lou Hamer - Dallas or at the event link <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/the-fannie-lou-hamer-story-tickets-338720240357?aff=ebdssbdestsearch>.

Our annual Justice for All Brunch is designed to bring awareness to equal treatment amongst all while celebrating life and futures!
